

PRAISE FOR TOM DREESEN

WHAT THE CRITICS SAID THEN...

DAILY VARIETY:

“Tom Dreesen has that show of elegance also sported by Sinatra, which is why the two are fine partners on nitery and arena ventures.”

...AND WHAT THEY'RE SAYING NOW.

RICK KOGAN OF THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE:

“BRILLIANT, FUNNY, POIGNANT.”

LARRY WILDE

AUTHOR OF “THE GREAT COMEDIANS”:

“Excellent material, superb delivery, impeccable timing. Tom Dreesen is the quintessential comedian.”

THE HOLLYWOOD REPORTER:

“Dreesen is a real pro, and one who can size up an audience in an instant. He is cool, contemporary and topical, and you can tell by his expert pacing that he is sure of himself and his material.”

A NIGHT OF ENTERTAINMENT YOU WON'T FORGET.

AN EVENING OF LAUGHTER & MEMORIES OF SINATRA FROM STAND-UP COMEDIAN

TOM DREESEN

THE STAND-UP COMEDY OF

Tom Dreesen

AND HIS MEMORIES OF
FRANK SINATRA

An evening of Stand-up & Storytelling that moves
the audience to laugh and cry before the evening is over.

In this unforgettable performance, Dreesen will take you from his childhood of shining shoes in bars in his hometown of Harvey, Illinois, hearing Sinatra on the jukebox to one day touring the nation as his opening act, flying in his private jet all over the country and staying up with Frank till dawn, night after night. He takes you to Frank's last performance and the last song he ever sang, and then to his last days on earth. Dreesen was a pall bearer, as well as speaker, at his friend's funeral.

Dreesen's keen insight to arguably the greatest career show business has ever known, and the lessons he learned from the legendary star, promises to move the audience night after night.

Tom Dreesen has made over 500 appearances on national television. He's a favorite guest of David Letterman and has hosted the show during David's absence. A regular in all the main showrooms Vegas, for 13 years he toured the nation as the opening act for Frank Sinatra.
